Hongkong, Shanghai and Manila at 55 the business element stands by when it cents per hundred pounds, while the is being discriminated against in the same goods shipped to Honolulu over matter of freight rates. You have got exactly the same lines of railroads and to cut your freight rates down before steamships are charged a rate of 90 you can really do a big business. cents per hundred pounds.

It therefore costs Honolulu importon to the Orient, 4,000 miles farther. In other words two shipments may start from the Ohio river on the same train of cars, be loaded into the same steamchant 90 cents per hundred pounds. The steamer departs for the Orient and the Yokohama, Hongkong, Shanghai and on the docks at only 55 cents per
